Los Angeles, Aug. 15. — A dejected Kid McCoy, greatly different from the loutacious prize ring idol of other

Mr. Theresa W. Mors, divorced wife of Albert Mors, wealthy antique dealer, McCoy is held on suspicion of murder in connection with the affair.

McCoy contends the woman, with whom he had been living under an assumed name, committed suicide.

The doctor explained the absence of any burn by saying that undoubtedly the cartridge had been charged with smokeless powder.

F. M. Andreani, attorney for Mors, testified that on Tuesday, the night of which Mrs. Mors died, she had met Mors in his office for a business discussion and that she had displayed considerable friendliness for her divorced husband.

Some Suicide Story Support.

District Attorney Asa Keyes, watching the inquest proceedings, reiterated his previous statement that despite

The coroner's jury returned a verdict saying that she came to her death by a person or persons unknown. The verdict did not state whether the jury believes the woman's death was a case of suicide or homicide.

McCoy today received some support for his suicide story from the lips of a county autopsy surgeon, Dr. H. A. Wacker, who on the witness stand at the inquest declared that his investigations led him to believe the cause of Mrs. Mori's death had been fired "when 'close to or against' the woman's head."

The first evidence of any person having heard the shot that ended Mrs. Mori's life came when Mrs. A. E. Avery, a tenant of the apartment

She said that she had retired about 10:30 o'clock Tuesday night, had fallen asleep and awakened to hear two screams, apparently a woman's, a shot, and then silence.

Detective C. H. Jarvis, who questioned McCoy after the latter's arrest, detailed the first official version of the ex-purplista's statement, the substance of which was:

The gun which killed Mrs. Moss had been given to McCoy by Rupert Kittle, ex-special police officer, daredevil aviator, and landlisp suspect, who committed suicide here recently. McCoy carried it with him and put it on the table in Mrs. Moss' apartment when he went there Tuesday night.

Mrs. Moss asked McCoy if he intended to leave her. He replied that he did and she, declaring to him she would "not let him go," seized a butcher knife and attempted to stab him. McCoy wrestled with her, but she grabbed the pistol from the table with her left hand and shot herself in the temple. Jarvis pointed out that McCoy was not a right-handed man.

McCoy attempted to leave her, failed, covered the body, straightened up the apartment and left at midnight. He had a "hazy recollection" of having visited his sister and saying that he "just had to kill Mrs. Moss," but he had no remembrance of the actual killing.

After the first inning the Glants had never a chance against Costello's wonderful pitching and the Elmiras took a 2-0 lead. After the first frame but two Glants got to first and both died there. Victor was also effective during the majority of the game. The contest was one of the prettiest played at Oneonta park in some time.

It looked like another shut victory for the Glants when Costello's berry poked a wicked single between first and second. Topel followed suit with a one base drive over third and Harper drove the ball to first and the Glants were in a 2-0 lead.

Benny's Third Trial

By Feg Murray

BENNY LEONARD, LIGHTWEIGHT CHAMPION, WHO WILL TRY TO BECOME WELTERWEIGHT KING ALSO.

This Benny Leonard's third shot at the welterweight crown, is liable to be successful, even though some people rate Micky Walker as a tougher foe than Ted "Kid" Lewis and Jack Britton, the two birds that Benny didn't beat for the title. Leonard must not have wanted the title in 1922 when he lost on a foul to the venerable Britton, whom Walker had no trouble in defeating a few months later. Perhaps, if Benny wins his second title, he'll resign his lightweight crown and let the "hot polli" scramble for it. He's so far above the rest of his neighbors' children anyway, that there's nobody to fight without going out of his class, up into the division above him.

Perhaps Benny will get tired of the welterweight title in a few years and will, with added poundage, become a middleweight. Going on with this line of thought, some fine day the cash customers might rush to see the unusual spectacle of a fight between Leonard and Dempsey. Well, why not—they fell for Dempsey and Carpenter, and Benny is about as much a match for Jack as Georges was.

Rebuilding Doubtful. H. G. Brown, whose fine barn was burned last Sunday, is undecided as to rebuilding. It was considered by all farmers and others interested in agriculture, one of the best arranged and equipped barns in the county. The insurance is small and the work of rebuilding so good a one is considerable.

Annual Forestry Picnic. Unadilla people, who attended the forestry meeting at Northville are quite enthusiastic in their report of the event. Those who went from this place, were Mr. and Mrs. Anna Wood and son, Charles, Mr. and Mrs. William Dickson, George Wright, Rev. Yale Linn, and F. T. Stearns.

GRAYS BEAT TRIPS; FINE PLAYS; UNFIRE CHASED

Longhampton, Aug. 15. — Williamsport made it two straight over the Triplets by a 5 to 4 score here today. Struck's home run over the field wall with one on in the sixth and Brown's sensational one-hand stab of Brown's line drive which he turned into a double play in the fifth featured the game, threatening Empire Lohr, but the official reached the visiting dug-out in safety. Lohr had ruled Jones out at first in the seventh on a close decision, retiring the side and cutting the Triplets from a tying run.

Umpire Wilcox was the recipient of a threatening crowd in the eighth inning after an argument with Catcher LaLonde. A spectator knocked the umpire's cap off and Wilcox chased him to the bleachers and retained, which was the signal for disturbance which police and ball players had difficulty in quelling.

ABANDONED TWINS NOW SEEK MOTHER

Children, Separated, Later Born of Each Other and Now Both Advertise for Parent

New York, Aug. 15. — A woman who left her infant twin-daughters at Gabriel Purdy's farm on North Main street, White Plains, about 28 years ago, is being sought by the children now abandoned, both of whom are married and in comfortable circumstances. The women have inserted the following advertisement in a White Plains newspaper: "Information wanted concerning mother of twins left on local farm about 28 years ago. White Box B-33."

The babies, discovered in Purdy's field, were christened Edna and Grace Fields, and were taken to the almshouse.

While still in their infancy they were adopted, Edna by a family living in Pound Ridge and Grace by a family in White Plains. Edna learned when she was 10 years old that she was a foundling and had a twin sister somewhere in the world. Grace was not told of her origin until two years ago, when she was about to be married. She instituted a search immediately and discovered Edna and the two decided to seek their mother.

CROP REPORTS BY AIR MAIL

The crop reporting service has been experimented with the air mail and finds reports from California are delivered within two days, as compared with five days to a week by railway mails.

CHOICE OF PUTTER IS MATTER OF PERSONAL OPINION.

CHOOSE THE CLUB THAT BEST AGREES WITH YOU.

SELECT A PUTTER THAT ALLOWS GETTING WELL OVER BALL AND USING FREE PENDULUM SWING.

What is the psychology of good putting?

Answered by BOB CRICKSHANK

Run up in National Open championship, 1923, and the man who, in 1921, defeated Hutchinson, Sarazen, and Barnes in an invitation tournament at St. Joseph, Mo. Hunt was up in Pittsburgh tournament for professional golfers, 1922, being defeated only by Sarazen.

When I first came to this country I was considered a good putter, but after the first year I lost my skill completely. I was at a loss as to what was wrong, so I determined to practice. I soon found that practice was what I lacked.

Do not keep on changing putters, stance or grip. Get something that is comfortable and keep it. Today I put the same as I did fifteen years ago and I am safe to say I putted as well as any one at the championship at Inwood last year. See that the stance is properly set and that the backswing is slow and definite and well-balanced. The body should be set, immovable, throughout, as should the head also, and last, but not least, the ball should be struck bold; every time. Take the line to the hole and fix it firmly in your "mind's eye," and all that is left to do is go up and hit the ball.

Benny's Third Trial

By Feg Murray

This Benny Leonard's third shot at the welterweight crown, is liable to be successful, even though some people rate Mickey Walker as a tougher foe than Ted "Kid" Lewis and Jack Britton, the two birds that Benny didn't beat for the title. Leonard must not have wanted the title in 1922 when he lost on a foul to the venerable Britton, whom Walker had no trouble in defeating a few months later. Perhaps, if Benny wins his second title, he'll resign his lightweight crown and let the "hot polio" scramble for it. He's so far above the rest of his neighbors' children any way, that there's nobody to fight without going out of his class, up into the division above him. Perhaps Benny will get tired of the welterweight title in a few years and will, with added poundage, become a middleweight. Going on with this line of thought, some fine day the cash customers might rush to see the unusual spectacle of a fight between Leonard and Dempsey. Well, why not—they fell for Dempsey and Carpenter, and Benny is about as much a match for Jack as Georges was. (Copyright, 1924, Associated Editors, Inc.)

Being the words to these songs and let's have a rousing sing.

FIREWORKS DISPLAY

Given at Celebration by Indian Department at Indian Park Last Evening—Special Chinese and Russian Fireworks.

An exceptionally fine display of fireworks provided by the Imperial Fireworks company of Schenectady, with Philip Benjamin directing, given at the celebration of the Feast of the Assumption by the Russian residents of the city last night, was witnessed by thousands and many others would have come to see the display, but for the fact that the display was delayed at 8:30 o'clock and was over shortly before 9:30. Despite the fact that the committee had stated that they would be given later in the evening and the display was delayed, it was unfortunately that the display was given so much earlier as many were disappointed.

There were no speeches, the evening being given over to the special features, the fireworks being the star of the show. The 100 and 200 yard dashes were both won by Charles Williams with Harold Koon of Division street second in both events. The 100-yard dash for boys under 16 years of age was won by John White and the second by Howard Gibbs. Worth while prizes were awarded the winners in each event, these being donated for the event by Oneonta merchants.

One of the sights of the evening was the large number of motor vehicles within Oneonta park where the celebration was held. There was a constant stream of cars leaving the grounds through both entrances from the time the display closed until after 10 o'clock, it being guesswork to attempt to state the number.

The committee in charge of the event was composed of Andrew Sabatini, Raffaele Micaroli, J. Isabella and Raffaele Matelloni.

The music by Company G band, under the direction of W. S. Dunsen, was one of the pleasing features of the evening and it was one of the best rendered by the band this season.

Miss Oneonta Election and Shetland Pony and Horse Car Contest to Close Today—Last Performance This Evening.

The concluding performance of the Turberville-Bell Society Circus will be given this evening and at the close of the regular program the results of the Miss Oneonta election will be announced, and the Shetland pony and horse car contest will be officially closed. Interest in all of these events is on the rise and is expected to reach its height today. Returns from all contest and membership tickets must be made before 6 o'clock this evening either at the headquarters at 235 Main street or at the circus tent.

A special prize baby and health show matinee is announced for this afternoon in the tent at which flats in addition to the regular show and all premiums and health points will be awarded at that time. The doors will open at 2:30 o'clock and all mothers are requested to have their babies at the tent not later than 3 o'clock.

WARREN FAMILY INJURED

Young Oneonta Man, Son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pashley, Sustains Casualties and Broken Bones Following Auto Accident.

Warren Pashley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pashley of 71 Elm street, a popular young Oneonta man, a student at Cornell university, sustained several cuts about the face and the loss of two or three teeth, besides injury to several others, early this morning when the car which he was driving ran into the car of William Crowling, also of this city, at West Main. There is nothing serious in the condition of Pashley, the only one injured to any extent, and his wounds were treated at the Fox Memorial hospital by Dr. L. S. Moore. Mr. Crowling suffered bruises to one limb, but required no treatment.

Mr. Pashley was returning to the city in his Ford coupe from a dance which he had attended at Cooperstown last evening. He had entered the city limits at about 1:30 o'clock and was driving on the left side of the road when he was struck by the Ford which was driven near enough to it to pass it would have entered upon the brick pavement.

However, Mr. Crowling had stepped aside the road near the corner of Main street and East End avenue because of engine trouble in his Overland touring car and Mr. Pashley did not notice until too late that the Overland was not moving. He made an effort to swerve to the left side of the road to avoid a collision but the rear wheels of the car locked and the Ford was thrown across the road and against the barn, which stands close to the highway at that point.

Mr. Pashley was thrown against the windshield of the car, which broke, and then he suffered his injuries.

The young man will have the sympathy of a host of friends in his misfortune, and all will wish for a speedy and satisfactory recovery.

The amount of the damage could not be determined last evening, but was not large. Perhaps the rear axle of the Overland car is damaged, and one left rear wheel and mud guard is demolished. The Ford has a broken windshield, a ruined right rear wheel, and dents in the right side of the body.

General Pershing remained at the camp for a day, inspecting the mess hall and hospital and witnessing a student ball game and dance among the Oneonta boys who had the pleasure of meeting him and listening to his short informal talk were: Edward J. Keegan, Melvin Kneue, Arthur Barnes, Orville Knowles, Albert H. Edwards, Horace P. Hamilton, Roland B. Hill, Wesley S. Hoffman and Kenneth B. Butta. These boys have also recently enjoyed a trip around Lake Champlain.

It is expected that he will remain for some time for

Memorial to Harding in Kansas Wheat Field

A year ago, while on his way to San Francisco where he died, President Warren G. Harding turned "dirt farmer" one day at Hutchinson, Kan., and shocked wheat. On the spot where the late president handled his first bundle of wheat has been erected a monument to honor his contributions to the wheat industry. Elizabeth Humphries (lower right) then in receipt of a kiss from the chief executive during his visit, unveiled the monument. In the lower left Harding is shown as a "dirt farmer" on the spot.
